INTERNATIONAL FINANCIAL REPORTING STANDARDS

Understand and apply IFRSs with confidence

International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRSs) are used around the world, giving organisations and individuals a common language. The more widely they are used, the more important it becomes to understand the framework and to be familiar with its key features. The use of IFRSs can affect a company's policies, processes and systems, so it is critical that all involved have an appreciation of the content of the standards; those seeking to use companies' financial information need to understand it too.

To meet this challenge, ICAEW has developed an IFRSs learning and assessment programme that will help you understand and implement IFRSs with confidence. This specialist programme is flexible, self-taught and easily accessible so you can learn any time, anywhere. It also has the additional benefit of formally verifying your achievement through an online assessment.

As a world-class professional accountancy body, ICAEW provides leadership and practical support to its members. To help you respond to the ever-increasing complexity and changes in the financial reporting environment, ICAEW has developed a specialist learning and assessment programme.

WHO WILL BENEFIT FROM THE PROGRAMME?

- Accountants and finance staff involved in the preparation of financial statements.
- Analysts, investors and portfolio managers.
- Regulators and standard setters.
- Students studying finance, accountancy, business and those pursuing MBAs.

The IFRSs Learning and Assessment Programme

WHAT WILL YOU LEARN?

The programme will enable you to:

- understand and apply IFRSs principles, concepts and knowledge in a commercial setting;
- keep up to date with the most recent changes to IFRSs;
- assess the standards' effects on how businesses report their results;
- understand financial information to support decision making;
- provide practical business advice; and
- produce and interpret financial statements and information.

HOW WILL YOU LEARN?

Our comprehensive learning materials give you the information, knowledge and guidance you need to fully understand and apply IFRSs.

ENTRY REQUIREMENTS

None.

STUDY TIME

On average, it will take 70 hours' study time but it could be less depending on your experience and knowledge of IFRSs.

LEARNING MATERIALS

Interactive online learning: provides an overview of all current IFRSs, with illustrations and examples. Also includes practice tests, so you can test your level of understanding before taking the final assessment.

Quarterly update document provided, summarising changes in IFRS since the publication of the learning materials, and allowing you to understand and monitor possible and definite future developments.

Online assessment: the assessment contains 60 multiple choice questions and is two hours long. Your assessment result will be available immediately. On successful completion, you can print your certificate of achievement, which will demonstrate your knowledge and understanding.

This is one of the best programmes in the world if you want to learn IFRS. It's the most comprehensive resource available, and comes in a really user-friendly format. As a practitioner in international accounting and tax I find it an invaluable resource. I've educated several US CPA firms in IFRS and find these materials extremely useful. I'm also a Professor of Global Accounting at Fordham University (NYC) and I strongly recommend this course to all my students.
